

COMMUNITY SERVICE DELIVERY MODEL

ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Children's Cabinet Presentation – October 25, 2011
Florida State College - Jacksonville
Presented by Alan Abramowitz

OUR APPROACH

- IDENTIFY 10-15 INDEPENDENT PROFESSIONALS AND CITIZENS FROM THE PRIVATE, BUSINESS, PHILANTHROPIC AND PUBLIC SECTOR TO SERVE ON A 'COMMUNITY SERVICE DELIVERY MODEL ADVISORY COMMITTEE'
- THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE WILL:
 - Review materials on how services are currently delivered in the community
 - Determine how these programs & services are connected and resources are leveraged at the state and local levels
 - Evaluate duplicative and/or missing processes, services and programs
 - Estimate cost associated and monitor feasibility assessment with any recommendation
- THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE WILL PREPARE A REPORT THAT WILL OUTLINE THE FRAMEWORK FOR AN EFFICIENT, SEAMLESS & OUTCOME BASED "COMMUNITY SERVICE DELIVERY MODEL".
- THE FINAL REPORT WILL BE COMPLETED NO LATER THAN _____

THE WORK OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE WILL BE GUIDED BY:

- The Florida Children & Youth Cabinet
- Key Stakeholder Groups
- Issues, as identified by the following service delivery reports and findings:
 - Senate DCF Interim Project - Review Management, Oversight, and Funding of Community Based Care
 - OPPAGA reports
 - DCF reports from Inspector General
 - Other reports as identified...

Objectives

- Identify improved ways to deliver services for children and families in the community
- Analyze and recommend best-practices from local, state and national sources
- Seek guidance from the experts on accountability and measurements of services in order to demonstrate investment returns to taxpayers, philanthropic funders, donors, and stakeholders.

Role of the Advisory Committee

- The Advisory Committee will comply with all "sunshine" laws. It is contemplated that the committee will convene on a monthly basis
- The Advisory Committee will seek guidance on service deliver programs and services on an as needed basis from a Technical Assistance Team. This team will be comprised of the following:
 - As needed experts to provide information to Committee (similar to DJJ Blueprint Committee)
 - Providers
 - Stakeholders
 - Government staff
 - Researchers
 - Others as needed

Team Make - Up

- Alan J. Levy – President and CEO of Great American Farms.
- Alan Abramowitz – Executive Director, Guardian ad Litem
- John F. Davis – External Affairs Director, DCF
- Kaye Kendrick, Kaye Kendrick & Associates
- Mitch Glaeser – Glaeser Realty, Inc.
- Marty Stubblefield – Market President of Ameris Bank
- Rich Morrison – Florida Hospital, VP Government Relations
- Roy Miller – Children's Campaign, President and Founder
- Stephanie Smith – Public Affairs Director, AT&T
- Other TBD

Technical Support to Committee

- Debby Russo, Child Care Program Office Director, DCF
- Linda Alexionok, Executive Director, The Children's Campaign
- Brittany Birken, CEO, Florida Children's Services Council
- Others as needed...

Key Areas of Focus

- Eliminating duplication when delivering community services
- Efficiency by shifting resources to services instead of administrative cost
- Effectiveness by ensuring dollars are being invested wisely from government
- Early Identification – shifting more resources to more cost effective prevention strategies

Desired Outcomes

- A framework that can set the stage for a strategic plan that will drive the efforts of a seamless and efficient Community Service Delivery Model at the state and local level
- Analysis of issues that must be addressed in order to create a world-class Community Service Delivery System Model.
- Identification of other related opportunities and/or challenges as determined by the Advisory Committee.
