Governor Scott Appoints Judge Don Thomas Hall to the Twelfth Judicial Circuit Court

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Today, Governor Rick Scott announced the appointment of Judge Don Thomas Hall to the Twelfth Judicial Circuit Court.

Hall, 60, of Arcadia, has served as a County Court Judge for DeSoto County since 1995. He was previously an assistant state attorney from 1992-1994. Hall began his legal career as an attorney and partner with Hall & Hedrick Law Firm in 1990. Hall received his bachelor's degree from the University of Miami and his law degree from St. Thomas University. Hall fills the vacancy created by the resignation of Judge John F. Lakin.
