RE: Flags at Half-Staff in Honor of Officer Horacio Sebastián Dominguez and Sergeant Jeffrey Reidy

Officer Horacio Sebastián Dominguez

On Sunday, February 21, 2021, Officer Horacio Sebastián Dominguez was killed in the line of duty in a vehicle crash. Officer Dominguez served the community for four years with the Miccosukee Police Department. As a U.S. Marine Corps and Army National Guard veteran, Officer Dominguez will be remembered as a dedicated patriot who served our state and nation with honor and distinction.

To honor the memory of Officer Horacio Sebastián Dominguez and his service to our state, I hereby direct the flags of the United States and the State of Florida to be flown at half-staff at the Miami-Dade County Courthouse in Miami, Florida, the City Hall of Homestead, Florida and the State Capitol in Tallahassee, Florida, from sunrise to sunset on Saturday, February 27, 2021.

Sergeant Jeffrey Reidy

On Thursday, February 18, 2021, Sergeant Jeffrey Reidy was killed in a vehicle crash. Sergeant Reidy served the community for over ten years with the Naples Police Department. He was a recipient of two Phoenix Awards for lifesaving efforts and many other recognitions for exceptional duty. Sergeant Reidy will be remembered for his leadership and passion for protecting children and families in the community.

To honor the memory of Sergeant Jeffrey Reidy and his service to our state, I hereby direct the flags of the United States and the State of Florida to be flown at half-staff at the Collier County Courthouse in Naples, Florida, the City Hall of Naples, Florida, and the State Capitol in Tallahassee, Florida, from sunrise to sunset on Saturday, February 27, 2021.
